The field of Early Childhood Education is a physical and emotionally demanding profession. Early Care and Learning Professionals must be prepared to potentially lift and or carry children birth to 12 years of age, actively engage with children indoors and outdoors, anticipate, critically assess and react quickly in many situations. Do you have any reason to believe you are not able to meet the physical and mental requirements of being in a child care centre as a care provider? *

Yes. Please explain:

No

If you have successfully completed other relevant post secondary courses that you hope to transfer to the NLC ECEC program, please list the course names, Institutions attended, year completed, and attach the course descriptions.

If you are considering requesting Prior Learning Recognition (PLAR) for experience you already have, please identify the NLC courses you believe are relevant.
