Advanced Specialty Certificate in Community Care Licensing at JIBC

We are pleased to announce that graduates from Northern Lights College's Early Childhood Education and Care Diploma, Education Assistant Diploma, Practical Nursing Diploma, and Social Services Worker Diploma programs can be granted direct entry into JIBC's Advanced Special Certificate in Community Care Licensing. More information on the Community Care Licensing program at JIBC can be found on their website at: <http://www.jibc.ca/programs-courses/schools-departments/school-health-community-social-justice/centre-professional-health-education/community-care-licensing>

EAP 108: Autism at College of the Rockies

College of the Rockies (COTR) will be offering EAP 108 online in their Winter semester. Education Assistant Diploma students who wish to be considered for this course must contact the ECEC/EA office at: ece-ea-office@nlc.bc.ca before September 30th as the ECEC/EA Chair will need to provide COTR with potential student numbers.

A letter of good standing from the ECEC/EA Chair will be required.

Student Procedure: Once the student receives the information that the Letter of Good Standing has been sent to COTR, the student can proceed right away with course registration by contacting COTR Enrolment Services - Admissions and Registration Office.

Contact information

Phone: (250) 489-8237 or toll free 1-877-489-2687 local 3237

Email: reghelp@cotr.bc.ca

Seats will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Please see the COTR website <http://www.cotr.bc.ca> at: <http://www.cotr.bc.ca/cotronline/programs-courses.asp?crsID=138&tabID=courses> for further information on this course.

After completion of the course, students will request a COTR transcript and have it forwarded to the ECEC/EA office in Fort St. John so that we can apply for transfer credits to the NLC Registrar on your behalf.

Prior Learning and Assessment and Recognition (PLAR) – ECEC Practicum

The ECEC/EA Programs are pleased to offer a Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition (PLAR) Course Challenge option for students with significant work experience working with young children in Early Childhood Education and Care or K-12 settings and related fields. PLAR may not be available in certain semesters and Practica PLAR is only offered in Fall and Winter terms. Note: PLAR options are subject to instructor availability. Not all courses or practica are available through PLAR.

Students interested in Prior Learning Assessment for ECEC Practicum are required to apply and indicate that they have met the minimum eligibility requirements prior to being accepted for this form of assessment.

If you are interested in this option for practicum credit, please review the following PLAR information for ECEC or EA.

All PLAR will fall under the NLC Course Challenge fee category and, therefore, will be based on 75% of the current tuition fee for the course.

Please visit our ECEC Admissions Page for more information <http://www.nlc.bc.ca/Admissions/Early-Childhood-Education-and-Care-Admissions>

PLAR inquiries should be directed to the Chair, Cindy Page, via the program office ece-ea-office@nlc.bc.ca or by fax 250-787-6222.
