Award:	Bryce Simpson Memorial Award
Award Code:	FBSM1
Catalog:	This award is in the memory of Bryce Simpson. Bryce died in a tragic automobile accident near Fort St John, at the age of 18. Bryce went through most of his school years, convinced that he could not do well and consequently, did not try very hard to succeed. In Grade 10, Bryce's parents convinced him to enroll in the dual credit Electrician program. This one little change in what and how he learned, completely, changed him. Bryce went from barely passing to a 90% average in most exams. He had finally found his life's calling! This award is given in the spirit to recognize what can happen when a student fully understands what he or she can accomplish.
