The President shall not allow conditions that unnecessarily restrict student or potential student access to education.

Further, without limiting the scope of the above statement by the following list, the President shall not:

1. Restrict or jeopardize provincially mandated programming in the region.
2. Curtail or discontinue a program without reasonable notice time to allow students enrolled to complete their studies or to make other suitable arrangements.
3. Allow program delivery from central or remote locations to be dictated solely by cost.
4. Deliver International Education and Workforce Training/Continuing Education at less than a break-even cost.
