Student Governance Participation

Students who are willing to take on the responsibility of representing the student body at the Board of Governors and/or the Education Council must be nominated by two other students, and if more nominations are received than spaces available, must run in an election.

Two (2) student positions are required for the NLC Board of Governors. Four (4) student positions are required for the NLC Education Council. Term of office for student positions is from the time of their election (October) through the end of the academic year.

Nomination Instructions

To complete the nomination process, the nominee must:

1. Be willing to commit time and take responsibility to participate in the positions they are seeking.
2. Satisfy the eligibility rules.
3. Receive nomination endorsement from two other eligible students.
4. Submit a completed nomination form and a candidate's statement to the NLC Registrar before the noted deadline via email. Faxed, mailed, or hand-delivered nominations will not be accepted.

Nomination Rules

Eligibility

- Any student enrolled at the College taking a minimum of two courses, and who is paying the NLC Students' Association fee, is eligible to be nominated. Both full and part-time students are eligible.
- The student should also be attending the College, i.e. being enrolled for the full instructional year. In the event a student withdraws during the instructional year, the elected position will be declared vacant.
- The student must be nominated by two other eligible students.

Note: A student may nominate as many individuals as there are positions available for election, e.g. a student may nominate up to four students for the four student positions available on the Education Council.

Campaign Rules

Campaigning is defined as "any activity by a candidate, be it through social media, posters, discussion, or announcements, to encourage or entice a constituent to vote for them or another specific candidate".

1. All candidates must submit a Candidate Statement, which will be published on the Student Governance web page (<https://www.nlc.bc.ca/student-governance/>). A photo of the candidate may be included.
2. Campaign posters are allowed however, they may only be posted on College bulletin boards.
3. Campaigning may happen up to and including election day.
4. Campaigning may not happen within 25 meters of a poll (including the advance polling stations). At no time will a candidate or someone campaigning on their behalf, engage voters at a polling station (including the advance polling stations or while a voter is voting online).
5. No campaign material shall refer to another candidate or their platform in any way without express consent of both candidates.
6. All candidates are encouraged to talk with other students:
 - a. To discuss how they will represent them at the Board or Education Council;
 - b. To encourage them to vote; and
 - c. To engage with all candidates about the issues that concern them most.
7. At no time will a candidate or someone campaigning on their behalf, harass or otherwise aggressively solicit votes, nor to use intimidation or bribery to garner votes. This limitation applies equally to social media and at locations not under the control of the College.
8. All campaigning activities are subject to NLC policies including the Student Non-Academic Code of Conduct. Nominees may be excluded from election should they or their representatives violate these regulations.

Questions or concerns regarding the violation of these rules may be directed to registrar@nlc.bc.ca. Note that while the identity of the source will be protected, the Registrar will not accept anonymous complaints.
